Numb. 8662.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 28, to Saturday August 1, 1747.

Copenhagen, July 25, N. S.

THE King of Denmark goes this Afternoon to Sora, about nine Daniſh Miles from hence, in order to be preſent To-morrow at the ſolemn Inſtitution of an Academy lately erected there, or rather reſtored, for the Education of young Gentlemen in Exerciſes, Arts, and Sciences; after which his Daniſh Majeſty propoſes to make a further Progreſs into the Country, ſo as to return hither before the 3d of next Month. The Queen of Denmark being in a fine Way of Recovery, the Queen Dowager returned Yeſterday to paſs the Remainder of the Summer at Hirſcholm.

Bareith, July 26, N. S. The Diet of Franconia having taken a favourable Reſolution with Reſpect to the Aſſociation of the Anterior Circles, Baron Widman, the Imperial Envoy, and Mr. Burriſh, his Britannick Majeſty's Miniſter, are arrived here from Nuremberg. Thoſe Miniſters have already had their Audiences of the Margrave our Sovereign; who, with the Princeſs Royal his Conſort, is lately returned from Carlsbadt.

Dreſden, July 29, N. S. Letters from Turin mention, that the King of Sardinia had reſolved to take the Field, and was ſetting out for Coni, to put himſelf at the Head of his Army, which, it is ſaid, will conſiſt, between Auſtrians and Sardinians, of an Hundred Battalions and twenty Thouſand Horſe.

Rotterdam, Auguſt 4, N. S. A Letter dated Yeſterday from Bergen-op-Zoom, ſays, that the French have made two unſucceſsful Attacks upon Fort Rover, and that at that Time all was well both in the Town and Lines. Another Letter from that Neighbourhood has it, that the Corps commanded by General Swartzenberg had Orders to halt between Oudenbos and Rukveen.

Hague, Auguſt 4, N. S. The Troops under the Command of Lieutenant General de Swartzenberg arrived at Teteringen near Breda laſt Tueſday: From thence they marched to Oudenbos, where they were to be met by M. Bunnania with all the Horſe that happened to be then in the Lines. It is now ſaid, that only three of theſe new Battalions are gone to Bergen-op-Zoom, where it is ſuppoſed they arrived either laſt Night, or early this Morning; and that the remaining Part of the Detachment is to continue in the Neighbourhood of Breda. Yeſterday's Letters from Bergen-op-Zoom agree, that the French made but very little Progreſs in their Attacks, either againſt the Town or againſt the Fort; and that their Fire had been for theſe laſt five Days much inferior to that of the Town.

Helvoetſluys, Auguſt 5, N. S. Paſt One There was all the Night from Saturday to Yeſterday the ſmarteſt Firing heard from Bergen-op-Zoom that has been yet; but ſince Yeſterday Morning at Seven, we have not heard one Cannon, which makes ſome apprehend that Fort Rover is taken; although there is a Report by a Skipper juſt come in, that the French have abandoned the Siege.

Hague, Auguſt 8, N. S. By Advices from Bergen-op-Zoom we learn, that the Garriſon continue in good Spirits, and ſeem determined to defend themſelves to the laſt Extremity; that the French go on very ſlowly in their Attack againſt Fort Rover, but were got in four different Places very near the Palliſadoes belonging to the Cover'd Way of the Town; that 80 Volunteers had ſlipp'd behind one of the Enemy's Batteries of four Twenty-four Pounders, and had nailed them up without the Loſs of a Man; that the Enemy had replaced them with two Twelve Pounders, which the Night following were attacked again by the ſame Volunteers, and brought off ſafe into the Town; and that M. Lowendahl had got the French Officer, that commanded there, hanged next Day upon the Battery. Yeſterday Morning the Prince of Orange received an Expreſs from Bergen-op-Zoom, with Advice, that on Saturday Night the French, after ſpringing a Mine under the Salient Angle of the Covered Way facing Coehorn's Baſtion, had attacked the ſame with ſuch Vigour, that they forced themſelves into the Covered Way, but were ſoon repulſed with great Slaughter, and the Loſs of near 1500 Men killed upon the Spot. During the Time

Time of the Aſſault the Garriſon ſprung a Mine that blew up two whole Companies of Grenadiers of the Regiment of Normandie, and ſome Part of the ſaid Regiment. The Loſs of the Garriſon amounted in all to 350 Men. All Accounts agree that the French Troops are very ſickly. The three Regiments that were marching up to reinforce the Garriſon were ordered to ſtop at a Place called Blaeuwe Sluys. Laſt Friday the States of Holland unanimouſly reſolved to raiſe a Body of 10,000 Militia, to be compoſed of ſo many Free Companies of a hundred Men, which are to be raiſed according to a determined Repartition for every Town and City of this Province. The ſame Reſolution contains beſides an Exhortation to all Magiſtrates to ſee that the Burghers, in their reſpective Diſtricts, be regularly exerciſed, and taught the Uſe of their Arms.
